

Sewing Club Bulletin April 2020

No surprise, there is no April calendar while we wait out our orders to stay away from each other. Are we not lucky that we can still do our sewing for ourselves and others! If your machine is still tucked away, get it out and start sewing. (No one is going to be dropping in.)

We have no meetings scheduled at this time for April, May or June.

Cradle quilts are due in July and stockings are due in August.

Marcia distributed stocking kits from her garage. If you missed it and still need some kits, contact Marcia at 760-726-9334. The Camp Pendelton folks can use as many stockings as we can make.

Have you checked our website lately for creative ideas? It is so nicely organized: Officers, meeting times, newsletters, meeting minutes, instructions, miscellaneous. Under instructions you will find the instructions for some of the latest projects that we have done together and under miscellaneous you will find inspiring pictures of completed projects that have been shared.
